

Die to Tell

House of Lords

Some say my soul's irredeemable
All I do makes me unsaveable
Unchangeable, unavailable

I'd say that's unbelievable
Mistaken and then so unthinkable
Unshakeable, unbreakable

Right on the bitter end
I can start over again

My story finds me soaring with the angels
Turn the page and I'm descending into hell
I'm gonna die to tell

Some say my life's a tragedy
Stonewalled and nothing's ahead of me
Laughable, forgettable

I'd say that's unbelievable
Mistaken for a wild animal
Incredible, regrettable

So I write it as I go
Where it ends you never know

My story finds me soaring with the angels
Turn the page and I'm descending into hell
My story finds everyone under my spell
Turn the page and I'm a prisoner in a cell
I'm gonna die to tell, I'm gonna die to tell gonna die to tell

So I write it as I go
But until the bitter end
I can start all over again

My story finds me soaring with the angels
Turn the page and I'm descending into hell
My story finds everyone under my spell
Turn the page and I'm a prisoner in a cell
I'm gonna die to tell, I'm gonna die to tell
gonna die to tell

Some say my soul's irredeemable
I say that's unbelievable
