

Your Every Move

House of Lords

Your every move
Your every move

I've seen it, you've got it
I've hunted what I've wanted
Just to touch your everlasting high

I drive it, you own it
And you alone control it
Sure to shock most every passer by

In the land of blinding dreams
You're my one and everything

Let's cross that line in the sand
Wake up the world while we can
I'm holding on to what is true
Your every move

Once lost it, I found it
Now I'm wrapped all around it
Once I found that element of faith

You planned it, I've known it
In every way you've shown it
Just can't let a moment go to waste

If the world should end right now
There would be no need for tears

Let's cross that line in the sand
Wake up the world while we can
I'm holding on to what is true
Your every move

Your love is what I live for
And die a thousand times more
Nothing compares when I'm with you
Your every move

Oh, in the land of blinding dreams
You're my one and everything

Let's cross that line in the sand
Wake up the world while we can
I'm holding on to what is true
Your every move

Your love is what I live for
And die a thousand times more
Nothing compares when I'm with you
Your every move

Oh yeah, you're my one and everything
You're every move, hey yeah
Oh you're every, every, every move
Oh baby, you're every move

You mean everything to me baby
You're every move, you got it, you got it baby
You're every move
