

It's Supposed To Hurt

House Of Protection

I have arrived, except this is shot (You're all)
Just standing here fucking around without a thought
I see your back, but where's your spine?
Just wires and wires and wires
And it's no accident
You're so happy to let go
Actually just fucking up everything, no accident
You're so happy to let go
Actually just fucking up everything

It's supposed to hurt, but I can see you're fine
You paint scars for shit you've felt no pain for
Then you parade the design

Is it supposed to hurt?
Yeah, it's supposed to hurt (Yeah, yeah)
Yeah, it's supposed to hurt
Maybe it's supposed to hurt
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

I would've left it alone
But then you're trying to take this from me
Take this from me
And I'll be fine on my own
Without you trying to take this from me
Take this from me

'Cause it cuts the risk when you lack the throw
And it makes you sick, and it hurts your throat
And it breaks your back, and your senses blur
And you wonder why is it supposed to hurt?

It'll lift your soul
And your senses blur
And you wonder why

Is it supposed to hurt?
Yeah, it's supposed to hurt (Yeah, yeah)
Yeah, it's supposed to hurt
Maybe it's supposed to hurt

I saw desire tarnish
No need to match your feign
I wanna be there head first in the rush
While you pray for rain
Yeah, it's supposed to hurt

(It'll lift your soul, and your senses blur)
(And you wonder why)
(It'll lift your soul, and your senses blur)
(And you wonder why)
I saw desire tarnish
No need to match your feign
I wanna be there head first in the rush
While you pray for rain

Is it supposed to hurt?

I said what I said

Yeah, it's supposed to hurt (Yeah, yeah)

Yeah, it's supposed to hurt

Yeah, it's supposed to hurt

I saw desire tarnish

No need to match your feign (Yeah, it's supposed to hurt)

I wanna be there head first in the rush

While you pray for rain

Yeah, it's supposed to hurt

Oh, oh, my love, don't take me higher

Take you higher

Oh, oh, my love, don't take me higher

Take you higher
