

Pulling Teeth

House Of Protection

One, two, three

Scream a lie loud enough and someone will believe
It may seem fairly obvious but I don't think you'd agree
Please refrain from thinking, it's what got us in this deep
Yeah, there's a pattern from the past but it lives and dies with me, hey!

Spinning all your rounds 'til you slip off track
Blaming someone else as you build your stack
Running the parade to the ground and back
Just to campaign that you feel attacked

Dream a lie long enough and everyone will see
The absence of conviction starts to rot out all your teeth
Shame there's not a muzzle built to filter out deceit
Let's fix that pattern from the past and it lives and dies with me, hey!

Into the static, fade away
Fade away into the static
Into the static, fade away
Fade away into the static

Pulling teeth to cure the pain
At a pace I can't sustain
Losing sleep, out of frame
Stuck beneath the waves again, again, again, again

Venom brings a scar you can't heal fast
Pulling all your teeth won't change your past
Venom brings a scar you can't heal fast
Pulling all your teeth won't change your past

Damages have gone beyond all correction
Nothing you can do to hide your connection
Damages have gone beyond all correction
Nothing you can fix in the house of protection

Pulling teeth to cure the pain
At a pace I can't sustain
Losing sleep, out of frame
Stuck beneath the waves again, again, again, again, again, again, again

Into the static, fade away
Fade away into the static
Into the static, fade away
Fade away into the static
Into the static, fade away
Fade away, fade away
Into the static, fade away
Fade away, fade away
