

Praise Is The Breakthrough

Housefires

In the middle of my darkest night
When fear is loose like an animal
And doubt is running wild
When my circumstance and faith collide, I'll fix my eyes

Oh, I won't be moved, I won't be shaken

Shout praise
When it's a fight to hold on, and your strength runs low
Shout praise
In the middle of it all, don't you ever lose hope
With every breath, till there's nothing left
We will sing until the promise
Praise is the breakthrough
Praise is the breakthrough

Now the weapons that I once held close
I lay them down for the victory
That You've already won
From the silence fear will hear my voice
I'll be singing
I won't be moved, I won't be shaken
I won't be moved, I won't be shaken

Shout praise
When it's a fight to hold on, and your strength runs low
Shout praise
In the middle of it all, don't you ever lose hope
With every breath, till there's nothing left
We will sing until the promise
Praise is the breakthrough
Praise is the breakthrough

Come mountain, come valley
Still my soul will sing
Come desert, come plenty
Still my soul will sing

In the answer and the waiting
Still my soul will sing
Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Come mountain, come valley
Still my soul will sing
Come desert, come plenty
Still my soul will sing

In the answer and the waiting
Still my soul will sing
Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Shout praise
Shout praise

We will sing until the promise

I won't be silent 'cause there's an answer in my prayer
I won't be quiet 'cause there's an answer, there is breakthrough in my voice
, in my sound,
And it's flowing and flowing out of me
Praise is the breakthrough

Your presence it is, it is
There's an answer in the inside of You
Let it out, let it out, let it out

Shout praise
When it's a fight to hold on, and your strength runs low
Shout praise
Praise is the breakthrough
