

Thin

Housefires

If it's true that heavens open
Let my heart be open too
I wanna feel the wind blowing
Be more sensitive to You
Oh, I don't wanna miss the stirring
I wanna hold the mystery
Oh, 'cause I'm convinced You're moving
I wanna follow where You lead, yeah

So let it be thin right here
I feel You drawing near
Make it a spacious place
Come and have Your way
Yes, oh-oh-oh-oh

Lord, whatever it is You're doing
Lord, whatever You have to say
I'm gonna lay down my agendas
I'm gonna get out of the way
Oh, so let my heart be tender
Let me lay down every chain
If conviction's what You're bringing, oh
I wanna know that I can change
I wanna know that I can change

So let it be thin right here (Over my heart)
Oh, I feel You drawing near
Make it a spacious place
Oh, come and have Your way
Let it be thin, oh
So let it be thin right here (Yes)
Oh, I feel You drawing near (I feel You moving closer)
Oh, make it a spacious place
Come and have Your way

Oh, I don't mind, I've got the time
I'm making room for You (Yes)
So come and do what You want to
I fix my eyes on You
Oh, I don't mind, I've got the time
I'm making room for You (For You to move)
So come and do what You want to
I fix my eyes on You
I don't mind
I don't mind, I've got the time
I'm making room for You (For You to move)
So come and do what You want to
I fix my eyes on You, yeah
All of our attention's on You
All of our attention's on You
All of our attention's on You

So let it be thin right here
Oh, I feel You drawing near
Make it a spacious place
Come and have Your way

Oh, Jesus
Come and move, come and have Your way
Do what You wanna do
Oh, do what You wanna do
Make my heart a thin place
Oh, let me make it easy for You, Jesus
Oh, let me make it easy for You
To hear Your voice, to respond, yes
Oh, I want to respond to You, Jesus
So make my heart a thin place

Let it be thin right here
I feel You drawing near
Make it a spacious place
Come and have Your way
Sing it again, let it be thin
Let it be thin right here
Oh, I feel You drawing near
Feel You moving in closer
Make it a spacious place
Come and have Your way
