

Threshing Floor

Housefires

I won't run from the crushing
I'll hold on through the pain
What I'll lose means nothing
Next to what I gain
Come tear down every idol
So this heart won't stray
Don't let me stray

I just wanna be your Sanctuary
A dwelling place for grace and mercy
Keep sifting me till everything is
On the threshing floor

You didn't run from the calling
Didn't push the cup away
For the joy before you
You endured my shame
After all that you went through
How can I ever complain
Forgive me Lord

I just wanna be your Sanctuary
A dwelling place for grace and mercy
Keep sifting me till everything is
On the threshing floor

Let it fall, let it fall
Let it fall, let it fall
On the threshing floor
Everything that's between
You and me Lord
You and me Lord

Let it fall, let it fall
On the threshing floor
Everything that's between
You and me Lord
You and me Lord

Let it fall, let it fall
On the threshing floor
Everything that's between
You and me Lord
You and me Lord

I just wanna be your Sanctuary
A dwelling place for grace and mercy
Keep sifting me till everything is
On the threshing floor
Till it is

Till all is left is You, Jesus

Till all is left is You
