Wildfire

Housefires

I surrender my obsession
To control you as I please
And I lay down all my idols
Of a God who looks like me

Your love is a wildfire
So I'll set you free
I'll let you go, I'll let you move, I'll let you be

Yeah, Your love is wildfire
And It can't be tamed
Oh, You're gonna do what You're gonna do
So I'm gonna let you have Your way

Wildfire
Your love is a wildfire
A wildfire

You said if I seek you, I will find you
Oh, and if I knock You will open up the door
In surrender you have shown me
You're so much better than I think You are

Your love is a wildfire
So I'll set you free
I'll let you go, I'll let you move, I'll let you be

Your love is wildfire
And It can't be tamed
Oh, You're gonna do what You're gonna do
So I'm gonna let you have Your way

Wildfire
Oh, Your love is a wildfire
A wildfire

I can't fence you in
I don't want control
Maybe love begins when I let go

I can't fence You in
I don't want control
Maybe love begins when I let go

I can't fence you in
I don't want control
Maybe love begins when I let go

I can't fence you in
I don't want control
Maybe love begins when I let go

So I let you go
I let you go
I let you go
I let you go

Your love is a wildfire
So I'll set you free

Your love is wildfire
So I'm gonna let you have Your way

Wildfire
A wildfire, yeah

I'll let you
I'll let you go, I'll let you move, I'll let you know

I'll let you go

'Cause Your love is a wildfire
So I'll set you free
I'll let you go, I'll let you move, I'll let you be, yes

Your love is wildfire
And It can't be tamed
Oh, You're gonna do what You're gonna do
So I'm gonna let you have Your way

Wildfire
Have Your way, wildfire
Oh, You're a wildfire

Who am to keep you closed up?
Who am I to keep you to myself?
Who am I to make you in my image?
You're a wildfire

You're a wildfire
I'll set you free
I'll let you be

Your love is wildfire
So I'll set You free

Your love is wildfire
So I'm gonna let You have Your way

Go on and have Your way
Go on and have Your way
Yeah, yeah
Go on and have Your way
