

Formed By The Stars

Howard Jones

Ride astride the galloping horse
Hold her tight
Define his course
As the eight winds blow
Doubts will overflow
You will stand alone
Shaken to the bone

You are formed by the stars
Umbilically connected
Ability unlimited
The future is selected
The spiderweb is plucked
And every part affected
All your efforts count
No tiny grain rejected

Navigate the hurricanes
Find the joy within the pain
Forged in open fire
This sword will be strong
You are no imposter
Born to take it on

You are formed by the stars
Umbilically connected
Ability unlimited
The future is selected
The spiderweb is plucked
And every part affected
All your efforts count
No tiny grain rejected

You are formed by the stars
Umbilically connected
Ability unlimited

The spiderweb is plucked
