Have You Heard The News

Howard Jones

Flying thru the airwaves Living thru the printed word Flasher in the living room Guru of the seen and heard Who decides what we get to hear? Fuzzy 'round the edges Or making it clear? Blinding us with those facts Blinding us with those facts

Have You Heard the News? Wo wo wo wooo Have You Heard the News?

Written on the black and white page We can't believe what we read Doubting of reality Has become the new rage Who says that truth is stranger than fiction? Money [it talks] and it will cause less friction A few white lies for a nice little sensation

Have You Heard the News? Wo wo wo wooo Have You Heard the News?

Little box in the corner A picture worth a thousand words But who chooses which pictures we see? Who decides on the commentary? Keeping people in a state of confusion There's a thin line between facts and illusion Diverting our attention from Big Brother in the city

When will we get, when will we get to the real nitty gritty, Nitty gritty, nitty gritty When will we get to it, when will we get to it now, when will we get to Ιt When will we get to it? Living thru the printed word [Flasher] in the living room Guru of the seen and heard Who decides what we get to hear? Fuzzy 'round the edges Or making it clear? Blinding us with those facts oh Blinding us with those facts Have You Heard the News? Wo wo wo wooo Have You Heard the News? Have you heard, have you heard?

Have You Heard the News? Wo wo wo wooo Histeno you Have You Heard the News?
