

Harley

Howie Day

There are things that I have said
But you know that I don't mean them
Sit and watch the ships go by
And start to wonder why
You lost me

How can I communicate
When the words are so mistaken?
A revolution of the heart
Could break us down
And start to show me

Just tell me what you have to say
You tell me what's on your mind
I don't have another breath to waste upon this
Bring the truth into the light

Make it up and I'll believe it
Well, I know it's what I need to hear
Whenever I appear beside me

So tell me what you have to say
You tell me what's on your mind
I don't have another breath to waste upon this

Can you tell me that I had it wrong
Because I set it down in stone
Well, you tell me that I've been played on, by you, all along
Have I been your confidant?
I don't wanna be your Yes Man
Harley Quinn, hold on

Just tell me what you have to say
You tell me what's on your mind
I don't have another breath to waste upon this
Tell me what you have to say
Tell me that you're on side
I don't have another breath to waste upon this
Anymore
Ooh, anymore
