

So, Goodbye

Howie Day

He falls asleep against her door
She comes apart sometimes
I think of what a good thing it was before her
And how overrated it seemed

Sometime, I had enough of giving up on you
Not like we were before
Did enough, I couldn't lie to you
But you made it sound like I was
So goodbye
So goodbye

Take a walk down on the street
I try and come back down
I think of what a good thing it was before me
How it just, it disappeared
It seemed like it was in a dream

I've had enough of giving up on you
Not like we were before
Did enough, I couldn't lie to you
But you made it sound like I was
So goodbye
So goodbye

No way out
Like I could tear you apart
Nowhere to run
Well I can tell you it's not for you, for you

He falls asleep against her door
She comes apart sometimes
I think of what a good thing it was before her
And how overrated, overrated it seemed

I've had enough of giving up on you
Not like you were before
Did enough, I couldn't lie to you
But you made it sound like I was
So goodbye
So goodbye

Oh yea
No way out
I could tear you apart
No way out, yeah yeah
