

Back to Madness

Howler

Filled up with anger
Raining hate again
The dice of fate are rolling
Bills you have to pay

For every crime you made
And every life you take
A reward you'll obtain
Into the depths of hell

The red sky is clear
Shadows flee from me
The mist around is gone
And my mind is losing free

Now is time to fight back
Feel the singing steel
Your empire will fall
You will never escape from me

(Chorus)

Watch out! I'm coming for you
Don't run, I'm coming through
I feel alive again
I can embrace the pain
I'm coming back to madness
I know that's the only way

You enjoy your games of power
Judging the world up from your tower
Now it's time to spread the law
Live by the sword and you'll die by the sword

You say the strong should overpower the weak
That's something I refuse to believe
From the shadows I'll be face to face
What you see is real it's me

Filled up with anger
Raining hate again
The dice of fate are rolling
Bills you have to pay

For every crime you made
And every life you take
A reward you'll obtain

(Chorus)
