

Fury

Howler

Fighting the shadows, walking alone
Feeling the void crawling down in my soul
Eternal fury surrounding the place
Everything is fading away

(Chorus)

No, I don't think it's a good path
Confusion is coming, it's willing to kill
It's coming for me, I must resist
But the internal fury comes out
It's trying to mesmerize
To take control of my mind
To rip away all the lies

Thousands of dark memories
Twisting, running after me
Turning to insanity
Pain and sorrow I can feel

With my heart and soul in fear
The sky of my mind is clear
There's a task I must fulfill
Bloodbath, vengeance, Death is here!

(Chorus)

Stained spirits born of blood
With its burning veins invoke
Running like a razor's edge
Awaiting for the march of Death

I feel the power inside
Madness riding by my side
No mercy and no regrets
Burning Hell up to the end!

Fighting the shadows, walking alone
Feeling the void crawling down in my soul
Eternal fury surrounding the place
Everything is fading away

(Chorus)
