

I'm moving to LA, wait
Maybe I should stay here
On my parents street they'll take care of me

I went and shaved my head
To reinvent myself again
Thought that I'd feel cool, maybe I'm the fool for trying

All I know
I know I'm overthinking it all

But I'm fuckin' terrified
Soon I'll be turnin' twenty-five
Somebody tell me why I'm feelin' like this
Feelin' like this
I know I'll be alright
'Cause everyone's lost from time to time
Maybe it's just a little part of life, this quarter life crisis
Quarter life crisis

Night time, I don't sleep
But day time, I just dream away
Don't know why I'm stressed
Something in my chest that I can't shake
Mm-mm, while I'm watching my friends planning weddings
I make two or three plans and forget 'em
I just feel so different, it's just a part of living
Ooh

But I'm fuckin' terrified
Soon I'll be turnin' twenty-five
Somebody tell me why I'm feelin' like this
Feelin' like this
I know I'll be alright
'Cause everyone's lost from time to time
Maybe it's just a little part of life, this quarter life crisis
Quarter life crisis

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Quarter life crisis
Ooh, ooh, ooh

I'm fuckin' terrified
But growing up's just the dance of life
Maybe it's just a little part of life, this quarter life crisis
Quarter life crisis
