

I Wish I Could Hate You

HRVY

Ey, coming in I was cautious
Every time you were talking I'd Feel a rush of emotions
I don't wanna get hurt this time

I guess I'll blame my past
Don't trust so I hold back
Don't smile at me like that
'Cause you should know

I wish I could hate you but I can't right now
Something that I'll never understand
Believing every word that's coming out your mouth
Falling for you wasn't in the plan

I wish I could hate you but I can't right now
Something that I'll never understand
Believing every word that's coming out your mouth
Falling for you wasn't in the plan

I know it, know it, know it, know it
Loving always lets me down
Yeah, you know it, know it, know it, know it
I wish I could hate you now, oh

When we're kissing and touching
Got a feeling you're blushing but
Slow it down, we ain't rushing
Tell myself that I'm not in love so

I guess I'll blame my past
Don't trust so I hold back
Don't smile at me like that
'Cause you should know

I wish I could hate you but I can't right now
Something that I'll never understand
Believing every word that's coming out your mouth
Falling for you wasn't in the plan

I wish I could hate you but I can't right now
Something that I'll never understand
Believing every word that's coming out your mouth
Falling for you wasn't in the plan

Yeah, I know it, know it, know it, know it
Loving always lets me down
Yeah, you know it, know it, know it, know it
I wish I could hate you now, oh, oh
I wish I could hate you now, oh, oh
I wish I could hate you now, oh

(I wish I could hate you but I can't right now
Something that I'll never understand
Believing every word that's coming out your mouth
Falling for you wasn't in the plan)
