

Butterflies

Hudson Taylor

Just a touch on the shoulder, I'm passing out
Wish I could have told her, I'm freaking out
For I have been poisoned by butterflies
I have been stared blankly by those eyes

Oooh

What don't kill, only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now
What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now

Just a weep in the willow, I'm petrified
My head on a pillow of pesticides
For I have been killing those butterflies
Is that what I'm willing to sacrifice, to sacrifice, to sacrific e

Oooh

What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now
Oooh,
What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now
What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger
Now, now

Roll with whatever flows, or comes my way,
I always say
Roll with whatever flows, or comes my way,
I always say
Roll with whatever flows, or comes my way,
I always say
Roll with whatever flows, or comes my way

Oooh

What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now
Oooh
What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now
What don't kill only makes us stronger,
I guess I'm stronger now, now
Roll with whatever flows, or comes my way,
I always say.
