

Don't Know Why

Hudson Taylor

I wanna go home, I wanna get out.
Come out from under my shadow, but I'm not allowed.
I wanna forgive, I wanna forget.
Say goodbye to my comfort...

I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.

I wanna be young.
Don't wanna grow old.
I think to much of my future, break the mold.
I'm dreaming of sin but where to begin?
I'll be like this forever...

I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.
I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.

I wanna go out, don't wanna stay in.
I'll be like this forever to complete my sin.
I wanna be true, just like you.
Don't wanna be a liar...

I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.
I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.
I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.

So keep your dream, keep your pain, keep it under your conscience, stay in from the rain...
I wanna be cool, just like you.
I wanna be together...

I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.
I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you then.
I don't know why and I don't know when, I need you now like I needed you, now like I needed you, now like I needed you then
