Hudson Taylor

My heart is like a spinning wheel
I never know which way I feel
My life is like a deck of cards
I shuffle it when it gets hard
Time is like an endless race
I always show my poker face
Love is like a rolling dice
Will I get to roll it twice?

Maybe I'll never know
Oh

I've been searching for the answers
Oh life, oh love

Sign here on the dotted line
We wanna represent your life
But If I play your heads or tails
One of us is bound to fail

Maybe I should just say no
Oh
