Speechless

Hudson Taylor

Let me begin as if it's over
Cause it makes it easier to say
I'll never have a better lover
I'll never see a better day

Cause I just can't write about the present
It's just too good to put in words
If I could I'd take a lesson
In how to say you mean the world

I'm speechless I don't know how
Reducing me to a page
What are you feeling right now when I say
Won't you stay with me stay with me

You play the numbers and the figures
I don't have the head to do the math
But if you round it off into letters
You would spell the perfect catch

I'm speechless I don't know how
Reducing me to a page
What are you feeling right now when I say
Won't you stay with me stay with me

What I can give I'l give to you
What I can say I'll say to you
Only for you, only for, only for you

So let me end at the beginning
I've grown the confidence to say
I'll never have a better lover
I'll never see a better day
