

Where Did It All Go Wrong?

Hudson Taylor

I can't sleep at night
I can't lose this fight
There's an open door
I'm coming back for more
Even though it hurts me so
I never really could say no to you

And it's rising up
Have you have seen enough?
Just thought I'd let you know
I'm learning how to let it go
I know I've said this all before
The more I learn the more I'm sure it's you
It all comes back to you

Where did it all go wrong?
When did my heart belong to you?
I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It's all comes back to you
We're running away from love
I'm like the sun you are the moon
I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It all comes back to you

I'm on the streets again
Shadow's only friend
I look for you in the cold
I need a hand to hold
Even though I said goodbye
Here I am still crying out for you

Is there something there
Something that makes you scared
A little memory
Keeps calling you back to me
I know I've said it all before
The more I learn the more I'm sure it's you
It all comes back to you

Where did it all go wrong?
When did my heart belong to you?
I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It all comes back to you
We're running away from love
I'm like the sun you are the moon
I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It all comes back to you

This is the wrong I've been trying to right
The truth I've been trying to hide
There's a reason that I'm feeling
Like it's easier to keep it inside

It all comes back to you

Where did it all go wrong?
When did my heart belong to you?

I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It all comes back to you
We're running away from love
I'm like the sun you are the moon
I know it's crazy but it's true, it's true
It all comes back to you
