

Won't Back Down

Hudson Taylor

Make me believe ya
Make me think it's true
Let me ask you questions
Which bare relevance to you

Let me find my feet
Let me walk alone
And then I'll take a seat
Upon this empty throne

And I won't back down
And I won't stop before I get to where I'm going

Allow me to see
Allow me to hear
Let me form a plan
And I'll make this clear

And when I find my feet
You can walk with me
And when we take that road
Oh, that's when I'll believe

And I won't back down
And I won't stop before I get to where
And I won't back down

Because with every step
I'm lead towards the truth
So there's no use in fighting
I've no innocence left, my armour has no use
So take my words, they're all I have,
'Cause fate is written in the stars
Give me courage, take my hand, take my heart

And I won't back down
And I won't stop before I get to where
And I won't back down
And I won't stop before I get to where I'm going
Where I'm going
