

You Decide

Hudson Taylor

Need to commit to just ten minute
Get beyond my inner limits
Another day of procrastination
Driven mad by the frustration
Of doubts that never seem to end
When darkness is your only friend
What is my role on this planet?
Where there's a negative charge my mind is a magnet

What's it gonna be?
Run and hide, run and hide
What's it gonna be?
You decide, you decide

Time to leave this euphoric recall
Take a step into nature's free fall
'Nother day pulled by temptation
And you're sad for the time you're wasting
And the clouds are blocking out the light
Try to remember that you're the sky
Another day on this planet
I wanna say that I'm glad for it

What's it gonna be?
Run and hide, run and hide
What's it gonna be?
You decide, you decide

I got the tools right at my feet
All I gotta do is pick 'em up
Just when you reached out to me
I was almost kinda giving up

What's it gonna be?
Run and hide, run and hide
What's it gonna be?
You decide, you decide

What's it gonna be?
What's it gonna be?
You decide, you decide
