

It's one hundred percent
Even on my worst days drinks stay flowing
Vertical send
I still got my homies with me when I
Can't pay the rent, world is on fire
Me and my friends are drunk on a smile
A hundred percent
Even at my worst, that's what you get

I'm so tired of days online
So I get high and listen
Things may change but in my brain
I'm thinking what's the difference?
Oh, when you can't say no
Take a breath, let it all go
I, I'm gonna lose myself tonight

It's one hundred percent
Even on my worst days drinks stay flowing
Vertical send
I still got my homies with me when I
Can't pay the rent, world is on fire
Me and my friends are drunk on a smile
A hundred percent
Even at my worst, that's what you get

The Brooklyn dad, the Harvard grad
We all got shit we're kicking
These four walls, a carnival
When we got welfare wisdom
And oh, when you can't say no
Take a breath, let it all go
I, I'm gonna lose myself tonight

It's one hundred percent
Even on my worst days drinks stay flowing
