

Bruce Wayne

Hudson Thames

Is it stars aligning
Is it perfect timing
Is it Serendipity that you're the one I'd find in this crowd
Right now
Maybe it's the champagne
Dripping down on my brain
Liquid courage got me walking round here like I'm Bruce Wayne now, oh wow

I don't know if you're here alone
But if I don't ask I'll never know
If you've ever seen the city through my eyes

All I want is you
And every little thing that I do
Is to prove that to you
All I want is you
But next to you I feel like a fool
Time to choose
Keep my cool
What would Bruce Wayne do?

Feeling like a movie
Penthouse absolutely
You're shining like a diamond cause you're only wearing jewelry, oh wow
Right now

My hair slicked back
Crystal on tap
Your claws on my back
I think you're who my mama warned me about Ooh...

And now that we are here alone
If I don't ask I'll never know
If love is just another word for lie

All I want is you
And every little thing that I do
Is to prove that to you
All I want is you
But next to you I feel like a fool
Time to choose
Keep my cool
What would Bruce Wayne do?

(It's Wes Dot)
Just give me the signal, baby
What are you into lately
I pull up in Benz
All black, tint
Wish I was cool as my whip
I got a regular crib
Do regular, degular shit
And you think you're cooler than me
You probably is, it's so effortless
(Pew pew pew)
Out here shooting from the hip

Louis, utility belt, couple gadgets on my wrist
And it don't matter what we spent
Mind my manners like Wayne
Wayne Manor with the gang but...

All I want is you
And every little thing that I do
Is to prove that to you
All I want is you
But next to you I feel like a fool
Time to choose
Keep my cool
What would Bruce Wayne do?
