

Only

Hudson Thames

Here to talk about one thing only
Do you love me and why not?
Nights have been sad and lonely
I wonder maybe you forgot

I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing

I'm here to talk about one thing only
Do you need me and why not
Nights have been dark and stormy
And those times I talk to God

Cause I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing

But maybe it's time
I make up my mind
I'll keep you right here but all my loving on the side
But maybe it's you
Trying to do, something you know would never happen

Mmhm
Mmhm, mmhm
Mmhm
Mmhm
Mmhm, mmhm
Mmhm

These things don't end
Never had time to pretend
Never had time for a friend
We both know what it meant
Thoughts I have alone in my bed
Thoughts I have alone in my head, aah
One thing, only yeah

These things don't end
Never had time to pretend
Never had time for a friend
We both know what it meant
Thoughts I have alone in my bed
Thoughts I have alone in my head, aah
One thing, only yeah

Here to talk about one thing only
Do you love me and why not?
(Do you love me, Do you love me)
Nights have been dark and stormy
I wonder maybe you forgot
(Do you love me)

Oh, I don't want to feel a thing

I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing

Oh, I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
(Do you love me)
I don't want to feel a thing
I don't want to feel a thing
(Do you love me)

Maybe it's time
I make up my mind
I'll keep you right here but all my loving on the side
But maybe it's you
