

Right Back

Hudson Thames

Everybody wants you, so you want 'em back
Everybody loves you, somethin' like that
Next time they ask me where I'm at
I'm taking your love, givin' it right back
Don't you try to hold my hand
I already told you, don't you understand?
Oh, you know it's all part of the plan
I'm takin' your love, givin' it right back

It's late, I should go
You say, "Take it slow"
High stakes
Every decision
Is just another revision [?]
We drive, learn again
Racetrack, more than friends

We makin' motion
It crashes harder than emotions, my friend

Holdin' on a minute
Tryin' hard to quit it
Momma, won't ya help me?

Everybody wants you, so you want 'em back
Everybody loves you, somethin' like that
Next time they ask me where I'm at
I'm taking your love, givin' it right back
Don't you try to hold my hand
I already told you, don't you understand?
Oh, you know it's all part of the plan
I'm takin' your love, givin' it right back

I'm takin' your love, givin' it right back
I'm takin' your love, givin' it right...

Everybody wants you, so you want 'em back
Everybody loves you, somethin' like that
Next time they ask me where I'm at
I'm taking your love, givin' it right back
Don't you try to hold my hand
I already told you, don't you understand?
Oh, you know it's all part of the plan
I'm takin' your love, givin' it right back
