

Waves

Hudson Thames

Come here good lookin'
I didn't see you on the menu I was
Too tired up cookin'
For someone my age
Damn, how things have changed

I got your number
I feel it on the tip of my tongue
A constant hunger
Passion and rage
Damn, how things have changed

You
Take me out
Rise and fall

It comes in waves
Pulls me under, dare to wonder
Novocaine
Indecision's my religion
Mary Jane
Drunk on the weekend, drown in the deep end
Go insane
Cause every time it comes, it comes in waves

Don't leave me nothin'
Hit me like you fucking mean it
If I'm so tough then
Start making me play
Go on and set the stage

It rips my heart out
Every time I see a tear fall
Play that part now
I'm coming of age
Damn, how things have changed

You
Take me out
Rise and fall

It comes in waves
Pulls me under, dare to wonder
Novocaine
Indecision's my religion
Mary Jane
Drunk on the weekend, drown in the deep end
Go insane
Cause every time it comes, it comes in waves

You
Take me out
Rise and fall
