

Fool

Hudson Westbrook

Works like a charm every time you call me up late at night
One ring in, my truck's in drive on its way to you
What can I say? It don't take much for my heart to forget how good bye was
Don't make sense, but it sure adds up to nothin' left to lose

I'm a fool, fool for you
I'm tryna keep my cool, baby, there ain't no use
You can fool me once, that's alright
As long as you promise to fool me twice
I'm a fool, fool for you

Might be in Tulsa, guitar in my hand, south of San Antone, in no man's land Couple days away, I don't give a damn, if you want me, I'll come through

'Cause I'm a fool, fool for you
I'm tryna to keep my cool, baby, there ain't no use
You can fool me once, that's alright
As long as you promise to fool me twice
I'm a fool, fool for you
Yeah, only for you

Maybe I'm crazy and I don't care
I'm gonna love you even if it ain't fair

I'm a fool, fool for you
I'm tryna keep my cool, baby, there ain't no use
You can fool me once, baby, that's alright
As long as you promise to fool me twice
I'm a fool, fool for you
Yeah, only for you

I'm a fool for you
