

Pulled Away

Huey

(I pulled away, you pulled me back
Can't run away 'cause you love me back
I pulled away, now I'm fallin' flat
Blood-soaked T, stabbed me in the back)

I pulled away, you pulled me back
Can't run away 'cause you love me back
I pulled away, now I'm fallin' flat
Blood-soaked T, stabbed me in the back
I just popped a bean and I'm flexin'
I'm addicted to the ice in my necklace

I been losin' friends by the day
Just hit me up, down with the same thing
Forget love, need a ring
I been searchin', I didn't
Baby, what you need? Stop textin'
Lookin' at your face
I'ma take you home, we're a one night fling
Turn on silent when I hear you ring

Percs on the counter
So glad that I found her
Nothin' without her
It doesn't matter
Percs on the counter
So glad that I found her
Nothin' without her
It doesn't matter

I need you around
You always held me down
Where did you go now?
I think I'm leavin' town

I pulled away, you pulled me back
Can't run away 'cause you love me back
I pulled away, now I'm fallin' flat
Blood-soaked T, stabbed me in the back
I just popped a bean and I'm flexin'
I'm addicted to the ice in my necklace (ay)

Yeah, baby tell me if vision
'Cause when I see you in my dreams, you a villain
I'm poppin' beans just to hide away the feelings
I don't need you, baby, no more
No more, no more
I hope I can't see you on tour
On tour, on tour
You take what's mine, make it yours

Now you see, and I'm whippin' in a new Porsche
I'm smokin' gas and your man smokin' Newports
She wanna hit it, I'm like, "What you gonna do for it?"
Go anywhere you want, baby, I'm your passport
I spent 10K right on my Gs
I spent another on her fuckin' Luis V

I saw your new post with your new man
I know you need somebody like me

I pulled away, you pulled me back
Can't run away 'cause you love me back
I pulled away, now I'm fallin' flat
Blood-soaked T, stabbed me in the back
I just popped a bean and I'm flexin'
I'm addicted to the ice in my necklace
