

Eyes Wide Shut

Hugo Helmig

You know it's hard to be the person that's waiting
I can't keep up so I'll wait for you
And the way you act out, I can't explain it
Haven't slept for days and I'm blaming you

And I don't mind the fighting or the secrets that you're hiding
I just can't go on denying no more
Do you know, do you know, do you know?
That you're too far out to love
Too far out, girl

Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut
This crazy love, I can't fix it
I'm not wild enough for you
Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut
This crazy love, I can't fix it
Quick crazy love, I can't fix it, no

You're too far out
You're too far out to love

And there were times when I thought that you were changing
Even though I tried, I can't change for you
I can't change for you
So I guess this love is through
It's not steady enough for me, whoever enough for you

'Cause I don't mind the fighting or the secrets that you're hiding
I just can't go on denying no more
Do you know, do you know, do you know?
That you're too far out to love
Too far out, girl

Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut
This crazy love, I can't fix it
I'm not wild enough for you
Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut
This crazy love, I can't fix it
Quick crazy love, I can't fix it, no

You're too far out
You're too far out to love

Now it's hard to be the person that's waiting
I can't keep up so I'll wait for you
(Oh baby)

Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut
This crazy love, I can't fix it
I'm not wild enough for you
Look what you do to me, oh
I'm tired, eyes wide shut

This crazy love, I can't fix it
Quick crazy love, I can't fix it, no

You're too far out
You're too far out
Too far out to love
You're too far out
You're too far out
Too far out to love
