

It Took Some Time

Hugo Helmig

It took some time
To get over the worst of this shit
Surprised how much they all misunderstand
They think I party way too much
And I'm a crazy guy
But those who know me know that's not who I am
I guess it takes one to know one
It's hard to control one
Who can't be left alone
'Cause that's when everything goes wrong
I don't care if they write something new exiting shit about me
I almost never read, I got

I got my shit straight now I'm all better (all better)
I'll try my best to prove you wrong
I got my shit straight now I'm all better (all better)
Move on, let's move on

It took some time
But I'm doing the best that I can Always trying hard to make them see
That I'm a great guy
Living in a lonely world
But I got lost on a one way street
I guess it takes one to know one
Just tell me to go home
Just tell me I'm a dick when you get tired of my shit
I do care
'Cause you're the most important thing that ever happened to me
, baby

I got my shit straight now I'm all better (all better)
I'll try my best to prove you wrong
I got my shit straight now I'm all better (oh)
Move on, let's move on
