

Wake Up

Hugo Helmig

Who said girls want fun?
You know I got to get around
But when they're testing my patience
And they won't give it all
I still need them around, hey, hey

Yeah, I don't care about bad bitches, I like women
But I always end up getting stuck with 'em
Because I say I love you when I don't mean it
I was thinking about sex, not so much about feelings

We keep trying
But there's no way to deny it
We see it different
And we never wanted the same, hey

Boy you've got to wake up
And girl you need to calm down
And boy you've got to wake up now
And girl you need to calm down

Oh my God, you're still here
I just woke up and I wanna disappear
You told me you've been staring at me sleeping for an hour
Gotta get away before you jump out the shower

Oh, you're peaking on the crazy-hot scale
Got me running out my own apartment
Almost like a dog and I did it one lady
Gotta throw her out before she plan to have a baby

Oh no no no no no
Breakfast in bed, this is outta control
We just hooked up, so you gotta let it go
Yeah, we just hooked up, so you gotta let it go

We keep trying
But there's no way to deny it
We see it different
And we never wanted the same, hey

Boy you've got to wake up
And girl you need to calm down
And boy you've got to wake up now
And girl you need to calm down

And na na na

I was thinking 'bout girls even when I was around you
We gave it a try but you made everything about you
We never wanted the same, hey

Boy you've got to wake up
And girl you need to calm down
And boy you've got to wake up now
And girl you need to calm down

Who said girls want fun?
