Hailstorms

Hugo

Running out of time better get out or get in Days are slipping by I won't wait to begin
'Cos I'm losing all my feathers in the wind
Digging out a memory of who I was before
Of how I got involved in this endless war
The ones who win don't always need it more

I'm ready for release
I'm waiting for the pain to come
I'm begging to believe
Hailstorms coming, baby bring it on
I'm waiting for the blow
I'm reaching out to take what's mine
Whichever way it rolls
I'll dance my way through hailstorms any time

Staring in a mirror doesn't get you very far
The people that I'm looking for are out in the dark
Under city lights you don't see many stars
Crushing out a cigarette is all that I've done
Called in all my favours, watched my bridges burn
I'm stepping out, never to return

I'm ready for release
I'm waiting for the pain to come
I'm begging to believe
Hailstorms coming, baby bring it on
I'm waiting for the blow
I'm reaching out to take what's mine
Whichever way it rolls
I'll dance my way through hailstorms any time
I'll dance my way through hailstorms any time
Dance my way through hailstorms any time
