

I can shoot you out of my crazy head,
and I should shoot you out of my lazy head.
It feels like I fell for the one before you, I know I'd be for her.
It's so familiar now, now it's doing so well.

Tell me about the times and things your gonna do,
I'll believe whatever you say about and I'll be with you.
It feels like I fell for the one before you, I know I'd be for her.
It's so familiar now, now it's doing so well, you know, you know.
You know your thoughts are strong,
you're wondering if your temples could be happy ever after.
It seems to meet the the stars yawning,
your most abundant notions.
