

The Gladiator of Rome (Pt. II)

Human Fortress

Suspense was killing me
Mortal fear is running through my veins
Time to take the arms
Behind the gates

Here I had to fight
Listened to the deadly battle cries
I'm ready for the fray or my grave

Suddenly - they slam the gate
Blinded by - the daylight glare
Opened my eyes - a hall of arrows
Killed brave brothers

Gladiator - fighting in fury
The devil wants his share - wants my soul
Gladiator - fighting in glory
The arena is my home, my life, my hell

Who are my enemies
Cover me before their next assault
When just a day of grace can save me
Hope for my final deed
May I still survive - hard to believe
When just a day of grace can save me
