

Descent

Humanity's Last Breath

Life, an endless preparation for a bleak future
Born into systems exacerbating our
Inevitable further descent into nothing
The peak of human dismay

My home is where pain never ceases
A lifetime of wounds suffered
I can feel the end
All places become a nest of angst

Sacrifice the natural world
For artificiality
Sacrificing the natural world
For artificiality

Sacrificing the natural world
For artificiality
The most perverse version of suffering
A daily occurrence
Drink deep from the absolute horrors
Given birth to by you and me

This place has never been enough

Drink deep from the absolute horrors
Given birth to by you and me
This place has never been enough
Earthly arteries clogged up

Inevitable further descent
Bathe in the global decay
