

Pulsating Black

Humanity's Last Breath

Unbearable, limitations of man
Excruciating implications of death
All you do will fail
All you love will die

Only suffering is certain
Growing resentment for being
Existence based on pain
Based on pain

Existence based on pain

Cursed with survival
Cursed with the burden of being
A bleak future closing in Closing in

Only suffering is certain
Growing resentment for being
Existence based on pain
Based on pain

This darkness can always grow darker
This air will always grow colder
Needless suffering without a lesson learnt
Let me return to the soil of this Earth
Let me return to the soil of this Earth

Cursed with survival
Growing resentment for being
Existence based on pain
Existence based on pain

Only suffering is certain
Growing resentment for being
Existence based on pain
Based on pain
Based on pain
