

Down

Hundredth

You found me out outside beyond the rail
Needed someone to figure you out
You just wanted something to make you forget the hell
You're on the wrong side of the rail

Didn't use to be so frail
You try to float around
Turn it upside down
Fold it up, suspend and surround
Anything to turn it upside down
Down
Down
Down

Like controlling the two knives
Let the chemicals rise
Just focus
Try to forget the hell
But you're on the wrong side of the rail

Didn't use to be so frail
You try to float around
Turn it upside down
Fold it up, suspend and surround
Anything to turn it upside down
Down
Down
Down

Bare to make it out
Need to turn around
Screaming through the sound
I couldn't make it out
Too blind to know
Had nowhere else to go
I tried to bring you down
I couldn't hear you
Screaming through the sound

Screaming through the sound
I couldn't hear you
Screaming through the sound
Through the sound

Through the sound
Through the sound
