

Well we tried
But it wasn't right
Yeah, we dulled the high
Only to feel the rise

They say
If you don't chase the thrill, it's too late
We're always
Dreaming 'bout another day

And if you got it, live it, pick it up and fit it
And if it breaks, turn the other way
If it's burning, then get with it
Right before it's too late

Well we tried
But it wasn't right
Yeah, we dulled the high
Only to feel the rise
We live the way we fantasized

Just move
And when you find the one, let it cruise
You only bloom
When you're living outside the groove

And if you got it, give it, pick it up and fit it
And if it flakes, you don't have to stay
If it's burning, then get with it
It might be what you want

Well we tried
But it wasn't right
Yeah, we dulled the high
Only to feel the rise
We live the way we fantasized

But it wasn't right
Yeah, we dulled the high
Only to feel the rise
We fantasized
Yeah, we told the lie
Only to feel the rise
We live the way we fantasized
But it wasn't right
Yeah, we dulled the high
Only to feel the rise
We live the way we fantasized
