

Whatever

Hundredth

It's like walking on a tight rope
Don't wanna come down
Just in case I can't cope

And sometimes it's like
Pulling a flower from the vine
And taking it home
Just to find you're all alone
It's been dead the whole time

So I
I just wanna run, run, run away
I just wanna feel something good today
I don't wanna think about anything
I just wanna be whatever I wanna be

Be whatever I wanna be
Be whatever I wanna be

It's like dosing in a circle
We're floating around
Trying to find something beautiful

Sometimes it's like rushing the trip
Just to find that I'm all alone at the top
And I wanna turn around
But there's not enough time

So I
I just wanna run, run, run away
I just wanna feel something good today
I don't wanna think about anything
I just wanna be whatever I wanna be
(I just wanna be whatever I wanna be)

(I just wanna run, run, run away)
(I just wanna feel something good today)
(I don't wanna think about anything)
(I just wanna be whatever I wanna be)
(I just wanna be whatever I wanna be)
(I just wanna be whatever I wanna be)

I just wanna run, run, run away
I just wanna feel something good today
I don't wanna think about anything
I just wanna be whatever I wanna be

I just wanna run, run, run away
I just wanna feel something good today
I don't wanna think about anything
I just wanna be whatever I wanna be
