

You were sickened by the notion
But you're ready for you're close up now
Never wanted to have and hold anyhow

You say the world is too big and you're too small
But I think you're just my size

I will understand
All wanted was some honesty
I will understand
Don't keep it stealth like the KGB
Don't lie to me
I will understand
You keep on runnin but it ain't towards me
I will understand
Won't you take a ride with me

I will understand
All wanted was some honesty
I will understand
Won't you take a ride with me
