HUNNY

Take a Tylenol, took long enough to get back here, crying
Cheap tricks and fortune in a flash
She hits rewind to make it last, crying

Oh, she's so bright
I can't believe my eyes
Oh, she's so bright
I can't believe my eyes

Oh, I'm in paradise
Show me heart break a thousand times
I don't care to be or be caught without sweet misery by my side
Wide awake and paper thin
Pray to anything that's televised
It's safe to say my ignorant state of bliss is why
I'll stay in tonight
'Cause she's so bright
'Cause she's so bright

This modern life is a bore
All is fair in love and war
It's for the best
As insatiable an appetite be put to rest

And she's so bright
I can't believe my eyes

Oh, I'm in paradise
Show me heart break a thousand times
I don't care to be or be caught without sweet misery by my side
Wide awake and paper thin
Prey to anything that's televised
It's safe to say my ignorant state of bliss is why
I'll stay in tonight
'Cause she's so bright
She's so bright, she's so bright
She is so bright
