

Vowels (And The Importance Of Being Me)

HUNNY

Man is crippled and dead and
Meek and eager in his sin
Turn around, say you love the way I
Hang around, you miss the spark in my eyes

I was a queen last night
I said "Take to the water"
And let you drink my lies
Like, "Okay, you're right"

You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U
You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U

It's not at all unusual
To melt like a ball of wax or
To take what I didn't ask for

I was a queen last night
I said "Take to the water"
And let you drink my lies
Like, "Okay, you're right"

You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U
You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U

It's important being me
It's so important being me

You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U
You can't spell pain or kiss
Or run away or little mistake
Without me, or A, E, I, O, U
