

Silver Lining

Hunter Brothers

You know that girl who
Walks into any room
And lights it up, it's what she does
Baby, that's you
With all that beautiful
Wrapped around your smilin'
You're 'bout as perfect as your timin'

Even when that thunder's rollin'
And that clear blue sky's been stolen
You break through like heaven shinin'
Always be my silver linin'

Glass half full, I try to be
But when it ain't, you're there for me
Bringin' sunshine out of hidin'
Always be my silver linin'

You are my lighthouse
You are my way home
No, I ain't ever givin' up
'Cause you're my stay strong

Light me up
Light me up like you do
Fall into me
Fall into you
There ain't no thing
We can't get through

Even when that thunder's rollin'
And that clear blue sky's been stolen
You break through like heaven shinin'
Always be my silver linin'

Light me up
Light me up like you do
Fall into me
Fall into you
There ain't no thing
We can't get through
There ain't no thing
We can't get through

Even when that thunder's rollin'
And that clear blue sky's been stolen
You break through like heaven shinin'
Always be my silver linin'

Glass half full, I try to be
But when it ain't, you're there for me
Bringin' sunshine out of hidin'
Always be my silver linin'
