

Take

Hunter Brothers

What's it gonna take, gonna take

That crazy kind of beautiful
When you walked through the door
Honey, only thing I know is
I couldn't watch you go
And disappear without a trace
Couldn't let you get away
Once we started talking, knew it, we'd never wanna be apart
And I just wanted more of every second

You've already taken my heart
Yeah, you've taken my breath
Yeah, you've taken my number
Now you're taking my time
Can't get you out of my mind
I want forever and a day
What's it gonna take, gonna take
What's it gonna take, gonna take

How you get to me, girl
Yeah, it ain't typical
You're the sweetest criminal
And my heart is happy stolen
Every time you catch my eye, every time you kiss me
I wish you'd come and steal a couple million more tonight
And I just want your hand in mine forever

You've already taken my heart
Yeah, you've taken my breath
Yeah, you've taken my number
Now you're taking my time
Can't get you out of my mind
I want forever and a day
What's it gonna take, gonna take
What's it gonna take, gonna take

I'm just wanting more of every second
Got me thinking about you and me forever

You've already taken my heart
Yeah, you've taken my breath
Yeah, you've taken my number
Now you're taking my time
Can't get you out of my mind
I want forever and a day
What's it gonna take, gonna take
What's it gonna take, gonna take
