

When You Love a Girl

Hunter Brothers

My life was so simple
When I was just living for me
Didn't know what I was missin'
Drummin' to my own beat

But if life is a song
What's a song when there's no harmony
Then you came along
And you showed me how good it can be

When you love a girl
It will change everything
Rock your whole world
When all of a sudden
She's all that you want
All that you need
It makes you so strong
Makes you weak in the knees
When she smiles
Ya you'd do anything
Lay down your life
In the blink of an eye
'Cause no matter the cost
You know you'd walk
Through fire for her
When you love a girl

I ask myself now
How did I ever do this alone?
Since I've been holding you
I never want to let go cuz I'm home

Ya without you my heart is a
Half that could never be whole
I couldn't settle for less
Baby now that I know

When you love a girl
It will change everything
Rock your whole world
When all of a sudden
She's all that you want
All that you need
It makes you so strong
Makes you weak in the knees
When she smiles
Ya you'd do anything
Lay down your life
In the blink of an eye
'Cause no matter the cost
Through fire for her

Ten tiny fingers, ten tiny toes
Babe ain't it crazy the way love can grow
She's got our hearts in the palm of her hands

I guess now we both understand

When you love a girl
It will change everything
When all of a sudden
She's all that you want
All that you need
It makes you so strong
Ya you'd do anything
Lay down your life
Through fire for her
When you love a girl
