

Missing You

Hunter Hayes

I don't wanna hate that sunset
I don't wanna hate LA
Sunburns fade
Seasons change
But I miss the way you say my name
Some roads take you nowhere
Some roads take you back
But the closest to Heaven was on highway 27
I've never been lost like that

Yeah, I should be better
At moving on
And get my shit together
But I'm all alone

Up all night
Missing you missing me
I stay high
And chase it with a memory
So good at make believe
I think it's good for me
And I can't stop
Missing you missing me

Ah-ah-ah, missing you missing me
Ah-ah-ah, missing you missing me

Do you remember all the nights where all we did was getting closer?
I relive them all the time, that's why I can't stay sober
And I tell myself I'm better now 'cause I'm good at lying
But the reruns are just like a drug that I can't quit trying

Up all night
Missing you missing me
I stay high
And chase it with a memory
So good at make believe
I think it's good for me
And I can't stop
Missing you missing me

Ah-ah-ah, missing you missing me
Ah-ah-ah, missing you missing me

Some roads take you nowhere
Some roads take you back
But the closest to Heaven was on highway 27
I've never been lost like that

And you still keep me up all night
Missing you missing me
I stay high
And I can't stop
Yeah, missing you missing me

Ah-ah-ah (Oh-oh), missing you missing me (Missing you)
Ah-ah-ah (Oh, oh), missing you missing me (Missing me)

So good at make believe
And I can't stop
