

One Shot

Hunter Hayes

Hashtag, no filter
Said a lot of stuff that I don't remember
Lord knows, I'm guilty
Of a lot of sins that I don't wanna live with
Mama probably cut me off the family tree
If she heard half the stories people tellin' me

Oh shit, there's proof
Instas out there tellin' all my truth
I can't lie, so I own it
It's been a rough week, so what? I deserve it
Sorry to the Uber guy that took me home
It's kinda sad but I'm kinda glad I'm waking up alone

I start with one shot to have a good time
Everybody knows how easy one can turn into five
Don't judge me cause it ain't nobody's life but mine
And I only get one shot, so I take it one shot at a time
Take it one shot at a time
One shot at a time

Mess up, live and learn
Repent and repeat, build the bridge then burn it
No shame, just secrets
Gotta lot of memories, not a lot of regrets
Every time I said I never do it again
Is right before I headed out for one more spin

I start with one shot to have a good time
Everybody knows how easy one can turn into five
Don't judge me cause it ain't nobody's life but mine
And I only get one shot so I take it one shot at a time
Take it one shot at a time
One shot at a time

I think my fear of missing out
Makes me do the one thing I could do without

It starts with one shot to have a good time
Everybody knows how easy one can turn into five
Don't judge me cause it ain't nobody's life but mine
And I only get one shot so I take it one shot at a time
Take it one shot at a time
One shot at a time
One shot at a time
One shot at a time
