

Someone Will

Hunter Hayes

I'm not a touch your missing
Not the lips you crave
Do you want me close or
Do you need your space
Cause I can call this back and forth
It's only nothing working
Just give it to me straight if you don't wanna say it

Someone will, give the kiss I got to give them
Someone will, steal all my time and my attention
If you don't wanna hold me tight like I'm the only one
If you don't wanna love me like you've never loved someone
Someone will

No there ain't no pressure, this ain't no game
I don't wanna dive in deep just to get washed up in a crashing wave
High and low, this push and pull
This [?] goes too much, you don't think the side your on is gre en enough

Someone will, give the kiss I got to give them
Someone will, steal all my time and my attention
If you don't wanna hold me tight like I'm the only one
If you don't wanna love me like you've never loved someone Baby someone will

If you don't wanna let me love you
If you don't wanna be the one and only, someone will High and low, this push and pull, this [?] goes too much
You don't think the side your on is green enough

Someone will, give the kiss I got to give them, baby
Someone will, steal all my time and my attention, baby
If you don't wanna hold me tight like I'm the only one
If you don't wanna love me like you've never loved someone Someone will, someone will

If you don't wanna let me love you
If you don't wanna be the one and only
Someone will
